MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Plans)
THROUGH: Deputy Director (Intelligence)
FROM: Acting Assistant Director for Research and Reports
SUBJECT: Proposed Foreign Travel for [REDACTED] 25X1A9a
REFERENCES: (a) CIA Regulation 40-3, dated 21 November 1952
(b) DD/I M 22-100-5, dated 26 March 1956

1. Name and Title of Traveler

25X1A9a

[REDACTED], GS-15, Chief, Map Library Division, Office of Research and Reports.

2. Purpose of Travel

25X1A9a

[REDACTED] is the responsible officer in CIA for the coordination of the procurement of foreign maps and mapping materials. He discharges this responsibility by serving as [REDACTED]

25X1C4d

25X1C4d

[REDACTED] in which capacity he directs the procurement and reporting activities of [REDACTED]

25X1C4d

25X1C4d

[REDACTED] He also serves as permanent chairman of the Inter-Agency Map Procurement Coordinating Committee.

During a recent international cartographic meeting held by Rand McNally

25X1A5a1

25X1A9a

in Chicago, [REDACTED] made the acquaintance [REDACTED]

25X1A5a1

[REDACTED] Subsequent to the conference, [REDACTED] with other foreign representatives--

25X1A5a1

25X1A5a1 attended a tour of cartographic establishments in the Washington area. In the course of the tour, [REDACTED] talked with [REDACTED] about a proposed 25X1A9a trip to Russia by himself or one of his subordinates and later was briefed 25X1A9a by [REDACTED] and other interested personnel on the importance of the trip as it might allow procurement of Soviet maps and map materials. The Topographic and Geodetic Division, ACSI, has now received a sensitive communication from the [REDACTED] reporting an approach 25X1A5a1 25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] who requested that [REDACTED] personally visit him in 25X1A9a 25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] to view certain Soviet maps and information on Soviet mapping which [REDACTED] has by some means acquired.

25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] and there is little question of his ability to evaluate accurately the significance of materials which he may have received. It is felt that, properly handled, 25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] at this time may provide a breakthrough in the prolonged attempt of the intelligence community to secure post-war large-scale Soviet topographic mapping and/or geodetic data. These materials are critically important to the accurate targeting and mapping of the Soviet Union. Topographic and Geodetic Division, ACSI, concurs in the appropriateness of [REDACTED] trip. 25X1A9a

25X1A5a1 It is intended that following the visit with [REDACTED] 25X1A9a will spend one day each in conference on map procurement matters with the residence at each of these posts and the visit will enable 25X1A9a to usefully discuss and clarify current problems and objectives.

If the necessary arrangements can be made in time, it is hoped that 25X1A9a will also be able to spend two days in Warsaw, Poland, prior to his arrival in 25X6A The purpose of this side trip will be to visit

25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] 25X1A5a1

also attended the cartographic conference in Chicago, toured cartographic establishments in the Washington area with 25X1A9a and subsequently 25X1A9a has invited [REDACTED] to visit him [REDACTED] If the trip becomes possible, 25X1A5a1 it is felt that substantial intelligence advantages may result from it.

The development of a personal relationship at the [REDACTED] 25X1A5a1 greatly assist the future procurement activities of the [REDACTED]

25X1A5a1 [REDACTED] In addition, because of the assistance which 25X1A9a was in a position to give [REDACTED] in Washington, 25X1A9a may be briefed on more 25X1A5a1 intimate details of the physical plant and [REDACTED] mapping programs

25X1A5a1 of the [REDACTED] mapping organizations than might the [REDACTED] 25X1A5a1 his future visits.

3. Itinerary and Approximate Dates of Departure and Arrival

25X1A9a [REDACTED] will depart Washington, D. C. via air for [REDACTED] on or about 24 September 1958, arriving in [REDACTED] on 25 September; thence as shown on the attached itinerary.
